1. It is reported that the Tägliche Rundschau, as such, is to be discontinued. In its place a new newspaper is scheduled to appear in March 1947. The new paper will be an interzonal paper, along the lines of the Neue Zeitung, with a circulation of 500,000.

2. The Russians assume that the Telegraf will have to back the SPD Magistrat in Berlin. Therefore, the new Russian paper will attack all unpopular Magistrat measures and thus conduct SED propaganda under Russian cover. In addition, in order to beat the Telegraf, which sells for RM .15, the new paper will sell for RM .10 and will appear on the streets at 0600 hours.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
